

Kildare Public Participation Network

COMMUNITY PILLAR

The main aim / activity of a community pillar member organisation is to improve quality of life and community wellbeing.

Volunteering is a key aspect within the community pillar and is renowned for skill development, socialisation, meeting a particular need as well as creating fun and enjoyment in the community.

In developing criteria for the Community Pillar of the Kildare Public Participation Network, the role of resident' associations, community organisations, community councils, local development groups, Tidy Town committees, sporting clubs, parish councils and other local faith-based groupings, arts groups and similar community organisations have a distinct relevance for the community leadership role of local government and in the promotion of community well-being.

Eligibility Criteria for membership of the Community Pillar

1. The primary objectives and activities must focus on community responses to local issues/concerns
2. The organisation must be a not for profit group
3. The organization must be formally organised with at least a constitution, bank account or credit union account
4. The organisation must have activities that promote overall community wellbeing
5. The organisational structure of the member groups must not have representatives appointed by any government department, semi-state body or local authority; but this does not prevent any person sitting on the board in a personal capacity
